

Upcoming events sharing the latest in local transport data

5-6 June 2018

Edgbaston Cricket Ground, Birmingham

- Networking dinner with after dinner speaker Laura Shoaf, MD, Transport for West Midlands
- Launch of TfWM lot 3 for transport data modelling
- Latest developments in data capture, modelling and assessments for cities and regions

www.modellingworld2018.uk

14 June 2018

SS Great Britain
Bristol

- DfT Steve Berry keynote on latest highways funding developments
- The role of LEP's in highways funding and infrastructure delivery pipelines
- Innovative funding approaches, and emerging delivery models

www.highwaysfunding.co.uk

16 & 19 June 2018

BIG DATA CORRIDOR
Innovation support for SMEs

ThingsCamp5

Birmingham

- Internet of Things and sensors unconference
- Hands on experience in relaxed, friendly environment
- Business prototyping day on the 19th with Andy Radford's lego traffic lights and autonomous car

<http://things.camp>

21 June 2018

The Studio, Leeds

TDI meeting, Connected and Autonomous Vehicles

- Case studies on CAV preparedness from Oxfordshire, South Gloucestershire and the West Midlands
- Consideration of energy needs for future transport solutions
- Update from Transport Systems Catapult on the future of Urban Traffic Monitoring Control (UTMC)

<http://transportdatainitiative.com/event-booking/>

28 June 2018

Local Transport Data Hack

The Mailbox, Birmingham

- BBC Shared Data Unit secondees from regional newspapers work with transport and data experts
- DEFT153 to provide signposting and access to national and local open transport data resources
- Developing deeper story analysis on local bus decline, air quality and road condition

www.bbc.co.uk/ltp/sdu

11-12 July 2018

iCentrum, Birmingham

- Regional and national challenges to enable better transport data sharing
- Map of existing data sources and platforms
- A collaborative model for future working

www.digitaltransport.uk